

About Us

GeminiEntertainment.biz, a company founded by Craig J. Wilson, was established on August 5, 2006.

GeminiEntertainment.biz is an on-line source of entertainment news and event information primarily targeted to the multi-cultural society in Denver, Co. The site was designed to provide this community with an online venue that will allow them to satisfy a variety of interests.

GeminiEntertainment.biz will be the one-stop shop for its guest and members providing an array of information such as Entertainment news, Movie Reviews, an Events Calendar, Lifestyle Articles, Business Directory, Shopping Venues, Communication Forums and more!

In addition to the wide variety of information provided on the site and the communication forums that have been developed, Gemini Entertainment plans to give back. This will be done through a number of charitable events, virtual programs and unique events designed to make a positive impact on the community in the city and surrounding areas of Denver, Co.

Gemini Entertainment is the optimal on-line venue for companies, promoters, entrepreneurs, artists, and others to promote themselves and show the multi-cultural community the value of their economic power. As an incentive to utilize the site, membership and the weekly newsletter of events are free for those who register.

We thank you for your support. For more information, contact craig@jparty26.com Enjoy the site and tell a friend!